

All About...

Caleb Aaron Holloway

Caleb Holloway, a senior at Irwin County High School, is the 2014-2015 Region 6 Officer for Georgia Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America. He has been an active member of FCCLA for three years and has served his chapter as Secretary, V-President of Public Relations, and First V-President.

While serving FCCLA, Caleb has also been an active performer in the Irwin County Show Choir, serving it as Secretary and V-President for two consecutive years. Caleb is involved in Thespians, Beta Club, FBLA, and FEA. He has volunteered in the public library and in local nursing homes because he loves to communicate with people and help them with their problems.

Caleb's favorite hobbies are singing, reading, writing, and talking with his friends and family. He works part-time while maintaining a high rank in his graduating class. After high school, Caleb plans to pursue a career in public broadcasting at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, TN with high hopes of someday obtaining his own show. While in college, he plans to do some singing in the country music capital of the world. He also plans to continue being a part of FCCLA by joining the Alumni and Associates.

As both a dreamer and a leader, Caleb's favorite quotes are: "A leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way," by John Maxwell, and "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams," by Eleanor Roosevelt. After all, where would the world be without dreams and leaders to help make them become reality?
